PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Are you looking for a value-oriented, experienced Python freelance developer to help you with your Python scripts and business applications? I'm your guy! I've got 20+ years of experience in the Python programming space. My focus is on writing short scripts to automate essential steps in your daily work routine. The scripts I wrote have saved clients more than 1000 hours of manual labor - in the last year alone. I will help you to find and unlock hidden time resources in your workday.
